Li Jin's "A Month Of Sundays"

Prepared in close collaboration with Dubner Moderne, "A Month of Sundays" exemplifies Li's ability to explore the immeasurable possibilities of expression, humor and thought with his delicate detail and witty joie de vivre. The works, which are presented as 31 individual watercolor paintings with drypoint, depict a scene of amorous interaction that is as seductively sweet as it is suggestive. Copying himself through the medium of drypoint, Li self-deprecatingly assumes the absurdity of being both master and student within his own painting. Using all of his available artistic tools to transform this repeated subject into varied unique works, we are compelled to consider the multitude of emotional responses and the accompanying narratives that these intimacies evoke.

A master of Chinese ink painting Li Jin's paintings are part of collections including the Hong Kong Museum of Art, the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, the Museum of Fine Arts Boston and the Seattle Art Museum.
