Dubner Moderne is pleased to announce, Li Jin's Aquarium, a new collection of works by the contemporary Chinese ink painter Li Jin that is the result of our close collaboration together. The body of work from which the upcoming exhibition takes its name, is a collection of 27 individual watercolor paintings with drypoint and 2 drypoint prints. As a collection Li Jin's Aquarium is a seminal body of work that exemplifies Li's ability to explore the immeasurable possibilities of expression, humor and thought with his delicate detail and witty joie de vivre. It is this ability to use all of his available artistic tools to transform a single, repeated subject into varied and unique works that share form but not statement. Whilst Li Jin's Aquarium is a slight departure from his customary technique, it is precisely this change that compels us to consider the narrative of the entire "school of fish" rather than simply appreciating each individually.

A master of Chinese ink painting Li Jin's paintings are part of collections including the Hong Kong Museum of Art, the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, the Museum of Fine Arts Boston and the Seattle Art Museum.
